The Litigation Section of the State Bar of California, the Association of Business Trial Lawyers of San Diego and the Federal Bar Association are presenting a panel discussion on the recently enacted Class Action Fairness Act and the Act’s interplay with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23. Judges Battaglia and Adler will be the principal panelists.

The program will be held June 16, 2005, from noon to 1:00 p.m., at the District Conference Center in the Federal Building located at 880 Front Street. You are urged to bring your lunch and there is no charge for the event.

The program is open to all members of the State Bar Litigation Section, the ABTL and the Federal Bar Association. Space is limited. Those interested in attending should register no later than June 13, 2005, by contacting Charles V. Berwanger of Gordon & Rees at cberwanger@gordonrees.com or Woody Doolittle, Mr. Berwanger’s assistant, at (619) 696-6700 or wdoolittle@gordonrees.com. Seating is available “first come, first served.”

This event is approved for one hour of State Bar of California MCLE credit. The Office of Section Education & Meeting Services is a certified State Bar of California MCLE provider.
